

Philadelphia Works Welcomes Dr. Alycia Marshall to its Board of Directors

Philadelphia Works, the designated Workforce Development Board (WDB) for the City of Philadelphia, has a Board of Directors that serves as an advisory, planning, and policy board under the guidelines of the federal Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act \(WIOA\). In addition, the Board of Directors serves as the governing body of the 501(c)(3).

The membership of the Board is composed of business, education, labor, community, and government leaders. Members are appointed by the Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, and membership is guided by WIOA. The Board Chair must be a business representative, and the Board must have a majority of business/private sector members. This ensures that the business community is the leading voice in our local workforce system.

DR. ALYCIA MARSHALL
PRESIDENT
COMMUNITY COLLEGE OF PHILADELPHIA

Dr. Alycia Marshall is the President of the Community College of Philadelphia (CCP) and a nationally recognized leader in higher education. Previously serving as CCP's Provost and Vice President of Academic and Student Success, she advanced academic affairs, workforce development, and student support, while strengthening professional development and faculty onboarding.

Her career began at Anne Arundel Community College (AACC) in Maryland, where she was a tenured Mathematics Professor, Department Chair, and Associate Vice President. She holds a Ph.D. in Mathematics Education from the University of Maryland, College Park.

An Aspen Rising Presidents Fellow, she has earned numerous national awards for her contributions to education and equity. She founded AACC's Engineering Scholars Program and African American Leadership Institute and launched CCP's Aspiring Leaders Fellowship, underscoring her lifelong commitment to equity, opportunity, and leadership development.